Favorite Cartoon Characters

With Yogi Bear and Boo Boo hanging out at Rabobank Arena today taking pictures with the fans, we wanted to find out what cartoons some of the Condors players used to watch when they were growing up.

Erick Lizon was a big fan of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. Surprisingly, it wasn't watching Leonardo, Raphael, Michelangelo, and Donatello battling with Shredder and the Foot Clan. "I liked their jokes," was reason enough for him to watch.

Defenseman Jean-François David enjoyed Lucky Luke, a comic set in the Old West about a cowboy who claimed he could shoot faster than his shadow. David said, "I just liked him. He was cool."

Two players both chimed in that Darkwing Duck was their favorite cartoon. It was a Disney show about a team of crime-fighting super hero ducks. Defenseman Brendan Milnamow was one who enjoyed the show. "It was on when I would get home from school," he said. "So I would watch it after I was done with my homework." Adam Naglich was also a fan of the show, saying, "There is no real reason, he was just my favorite."

Condors defenseman Joe Rullier's favorite character was one that he sometimes resembles on the ice. "I liked the Hulk. He was my favorite," said Rullier. No surprise, as Rullier is known for his big hits and hard shot.

Slava Trukhno preferred a character from a more modest background, chemically if not financially. "Batman was my favorite," Trukhno stated. "I don't really know why, but I always just liked him."

Perhaps the most interesting answer came from a combination of goaltender Peter Hirsch and Joe Rullier. When Hirsch, the oldest player on the roster, was asked about his favorite cartoon, he said, "It's hard for me to remember what I used to watch." Rullier chimed in, "There wasn't TV when you were a kid!" Hirsch eventually settled on Road Runner from the Looney Tunes cartoons.

With Yogi Bear and Boo Boo at Rabobank Arena, they are sure to bring back nostalgic memories for those who remembered watching their antics as children. The recently released Yogi Bear movie can enrapture a new generation. So go get your picture taken – just be sure to keep an eye on your picnic basket when you do!
