Let's Toss some Teddies!

One of the most exciting nights every hockey season at Rabobank Arena is tonight! As you probably know if you are reading this, when the Condors score their first goal of the game, it's time to unleash a flurry of stuffed animals onto the ice. Last year, RW Stephane Goulet brought the Teddy Bears raining down from the stands, and it was a memorable experience for him.

It took just 6:34 after the drop of the puck for Goulet to bring the bears pouring out onto the ice. "It was a great feeling," said Goulet, who also scored the Condors first goal in a 4-1 win the night before. "I wanted to get those Teddy Bears on the ice. It was nice to put a smile on the kids' faces, too."

Long time Condor F Andrew Ianiero is nearing the highest games played total in Condors history, but has never scored the Teddy Bear goal. Last year, however, he was on the ice when Goulet scored. "Last year's Teddy Bear Toss is one of the most memorable of my career," said Ianiero. "There are two reasons for that. First of all, I was on the ice for the goal and I think it is the only time I have been out there when the goal was scored. And second, we set a Condors record for Teddy Bears donated. It was really cool."

Condors fans threw 8,075 bears on the ice last season, bringing the all-time total to 60,544 teddy bears. With fans ready to throw bears on the ice it could mean some added pressure for the Condors. Both Goulet and Ianiero, however, claimed they don't feel any added pressure to score. "It really isn't any added pressure," said Goulet. "The focus is just like every other game. Both as a team, and a player, we want to get the win."

Ianiero echoed those sentiments. "It doesn't matter who scores it," he said. "As long as we get the goal, as long as we can get that first one, it's all good."

The other difference for the players is the long delay that comes after that goal is scored. Typically, the players can ride the momentum from the hometown crowd following a goal and keep the pressure up in the offensive end. It's a little bit different when they have to wait for teddy bears to be collected. "It's really not tough to get going again after the goal. We just have to be ready when the puck drops," said Goulet.

Ianiero said they can feed on the crowd even after the long break. "When we score, it will still excite the crowd, and the crowd will keep us excited once we get going again," stated Ianiero. "It really isn't a problem."

As the longest tenured Condor, Ianiero has seen a lot Teddy Bear Tosses, both here and in other places during his hockey career. "Bakersfield's Teddy Bear Toss is huge," he said. "You can see there is a lot of generosity. A lot people even bring in multiple bears, and that is great to see."

We know it is fun for the fans, but how do the players feel? "I wish we could have it every night," Ianiero claimed. "The big crowd always helps us out. It really feels like a playoff atmosphere."
