It's not always just about getting a make over

A few lucky winners at tonight's game will receive various skin treatments from the experts at Spa Euphoria, and will get a chance to pamper themselves a bit... maybe even freshen up their look. But not everything that Spa Euphoria and Dr. Vip Dev handle is all about pampering or keeping that youthful glow.

Former Condor Sean Venedam was a memorable example.

"Dr. Chris Hamilton (Condors Orthopedist) referred him to me when things didn't start healing right," Dr. Dev said of Venedam. "There were a few things that weren't going the way they needed to."

A Plastic and Reconstructive surgeon, Dr. Dev was able to help get Venedam on the right track. The Condors Captain had suffered a brutal injury when a compound fracture in his leg sidelined him. "The bone was initially sticking out of the skin. His leg was still broken when I saw him. It had to be re-set before it could start to heal," he said. The answer was a hyperbolic chamber.

"We used a hyperbolic facility, which uses high oxygen under pressure to help people heal," said Dr. Dev. "Venedam was put under pressure at 100 percent oxygen, and that really helped him heal quickly."

Oxygen is the key to quick healing, as demonstrated by the importance placed on getting Venedam into pure oxygen. So why is oxygen so important?

"Oxygen is important to the healing process because it increases blood flow to the area," explained Dr. Dev. "The better the blood flow and blood supply is to an area, the better and more effectively it will heal."

A person's physiology is also an important factor to their healing process as well. "Athletes are great to work with," stated Dr. Dev. "They have great physiology, and they are in good shape. They also don't have a lot of bad habits, like smoking, so they can heal pretty fast."

Another issue that often arises with serious injuries is scarring, which may leave some people feeling self-conscious, and there are different techniques available to help you get rid of them. "We do a lot of scar removal and recovery," Dr. Dev said. "And even if there are scars that we can't remove, we can do things to help soften and fade the scars so they are less noticeable."

Fortunately, Venadam was able to heal his leg. And while your needs may not be that extreme, just rest assured that you're in good hands if you are lucky enough to take home a prize tonight from Spa Euphoria. Good luck!
