Dools versus Food - The Hot Dog Challenge – by Condors Equipment Manager John Doolan

For those of you who are old enough to remember one of the greatest and long running shows on TV, I finally got to go to the spot that Klinger (from the show M.A.S.H.) ordered the sausage and other sides from. That's right, Tony Packo's in Toledo, Ohio. Tony's was only two blocks from our hotel on the Condors recent road trip to Toledo, and when we arrived and had taken care of hockey business we ventured over. Marty, Bob Mills, Jay Lindsey and I set out for the spot, which I had targeted for our night out, all the way back when the schedule first came out last summer.

Much to my surprise, they did not only sell hot dogs but had cabbage rolls on the menu. Being a kid that grew up in Pittsburgh and married to a wife of Polish decent, I am an avid fan of that Pig in a Blanket. I ordered the cabbage roll, which came with a side of mashed potatoes and either a chili dog or sausage accompanied with sauerkraut. I opted for the dog... just had to... and I was not dissatisfied! The cabbage rolls were almost as good as my wife's and brought a taste of home to me. The rest of the group went for the hot dog combos. Marty had a side of dumplings which he said were unreal.

Hold on... one trip isn't enough. On my second trip I went the same route, another cabbage roll, but went with the smoked sausage as a side... WOW! It's a great place, and has entrees under $11.00.

Next stop on this trip was Cincinnati, and the "home" of chili dogs. Skyline Chili is an institution in the area, so Jay and I ventured there for lunch. I ordered the 3-way, which is spaghetti covered with chili and cheese. They have several variances including 4-way with onions and 5-way with beans. Jay went for the Chicken wrap, and that was a handful! We both had to go for a chili dog too, just because.

Next we needed to set up a team meal while in Cincy. I was in line ordering pizza at a local joint before watching my Steelers win another one, when I asked the folks behind me, "Where would you go for a good Italian dinner?" They told me Pompilios. Wow! The movie Rain Man used it as a filming site. Remember the toothpick counting scene? Yep, that's the place. The guys had a great meal. I had the sampler which was eggplant parmigani, two types of ravioli, lasagna, sausage and a meat ball. With salad included it still cost just $10.50.

On the way home our flight took us from Cincy to Chicago for our connecting flight. Well, time to put the finishing touches to our Hot Dog Tastings! I just had to finish with a Chicago Dog. If you have never had one, it comes with onion, tomato, sweet relish, cucumber, hot pepper, and a dill pickle. I am hoping to get to Pinks in L.A. sometime as they, too, are part of my desired destinations of hot dog lore.

Next up, New Year's in Boise. I saw an episode of Man vs. Food filmed in Boise... may have to find the place...
