Condors in the Community

The 2009-10 season is just over a month old, and the community work in which the Condors take part is a never-ending affair. But with each new season comes the excitement of player appearances out and about in Kern County.

Less than a week upon arriving in Bakersfield, RW Stephane Goulet and LW Mathieu Aubin made their first appearance in their new city. The two friends from Quebec participated in the California Brain Injury Association Dinner and Auction on September 30. The two were introduced to the attendees and answered a few questions about joining the Condors and traveling from Quebec. Highlights also included Aubin and Goulet taking part in a fierce Wii Golf match with members of the dinner.

"It was a great first event in Bakersfield," said Goulet. "It was an opportunity for Mathieu and me to meet some fans and also help out a great cause. It was a great introduction."

Just about a week later, on October 9, a couple of international players experienced their first real taste of Bakersfield when G Timo Pielmeier, from Germany and C Matthew Myers from Wales paid a visit to the Highway 99 Cruise-N-Show on Chester Avenue. Pielmeier and Myers kicked off the event as they were introduced on the stage before the main event began. The show was exciting for Pielmeier, who has a particular liking for cars.

The player appearances continued throughout October and into November, including D Patrik Prokop, kicking off a fundraiser with the Condors at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, as well as stops at the Special Olympics at Rosewood Retirement Center and numerous media appearances on ESPN Radio 1230, KGET-TV17, ABC23 and Eyewitness News 29/58.

Most recently, C Maxime Macenauer stopped by Colonel Howard Nichols Elementary to have lunch with Mrs. Brandon's choir as a reward for her class raising the most money for their school through their fundraiser with the Condors. After the kids sat down with their lunch in the park, Macenauer appeared, and the kids screamed for joy.

After their initial excitement, the kids gathered their strength to sing their rendition of the National Anthem, which they will be performing tonight at Rabobank Arena in front of their largest audience ever.

It was a meaningful event at Nichols Elementary, not only for the kids, many of which expressed their enthusiasm for the Condors, but also for Macenauer.

"These kids were such a joy to be around," said Macenauer. "I love coming out to see kids in the community. They are some of our biggest fans and we appreciate that."

It's only November, and the players will be here for many more months to create more memorable moments in the community that will last lifetime.

Contact the Community & Media Relations Manager Jason Lockhart at 324-PUCK (7825) to get the Condors involved in your community event.
